

St.Petersburg State Electrotechnical University: towards internationalization

(current status of didactic and research activity)

Interviene:

Prof. VADIM PARFENOV

Department of Laser Measurements and Navigation Systems

Saint Petersburg Electrotechnical University "LETI"

Saint-Petersburg, Russia

St.Petersburg State Electrotechnical University, former V.I.Lenin Leningrad Electrotechnical Institute (LETI) is one of most famous and leading technical universities in Russia, which was founded in 1886. Following the directives of the Ministry of Science and Education of Russian Federation at the moment the LETI is involved in the the Program "5-100". The task of this program is the improvement of the image of Russian universities to make possible for 5 of them to enter in the international list Top-100 (100 most ranked universities in the world). The paper will give and overview of current research and didactic activities of the LETI focusing onto actions concerned with its internalization.

Seminario

Lunedì 11 maggio 2015

Sala Riunioni, ore 11.00

Via dei Musei 41 - Brescia

UNIVERSITÀ
CATTOLICA
del Sacro Cuore